What Is Not Yours Is

When you are indicating possession, yours is the correct choice—not your's. You do not need an apostrophe to indicate possession because yours itself is a possessive pronoun. In this sense, yours is similar to other possessive pronouns like its, whose, and ours. None of these words requires an apostrophe since they are already possessive.

Yours vs. Your's: What's the Difference? - Writing Explained

The idea that yours needs an apostrophe comes out of the fact that on virtually every other word, 's indicates possession, so English speakers sometimes think yours should be spelled your's. However, this is always incorrect – yours is the only correct spelling. Related English Mistakes. apostrophe s; hers vs her's; its vs it's; ours vs our's
